

Confessions of Faith for Blessing

The following confessions/affirmations are based on the scripture verses listed after them. These truths offer a way to express your gratitude to the Lord for his many and great blessings in your life. Speak them aloud, write them in your journal, confess them in your mind and heart as truths whenever you feel stressed or in need of a reminder of God's care and love for you. Look up the scriptures and read them from various versions to meditate further on the amazing and grace-filled blessings from the Lord in your life.
